MAN A DISEASE FACTORY

What One of Our Leading Druggists Says Will Happen

WHEN DYSPEPSIA IS NEGLECTED.

Reckall Dyspepsia Tablets Stops the Pain and Cures the Disease.

The stomach is the most abused organ in the body; it is treated with the utmost disrespect. By many it is looked on merely as a receptacle for food, to be filled as often as desired or needed, with all sorts of food or abominations called food.

Then, too, all sorts of fluids are poured into it at meal-times, and the least harm that they do is to dilute the gastric juice until it has lost to a great degree its digesting power.

Wines and liquors do more than this. Besides diluting the gastric juice, they attack the lining coats of the stomach, irritating and inflaming them.

Reckall Dyspepsia Tablets are designed to arrest, correct and cure just such conditions. These tablets are not an experiment; they are not the haphazard mixture of a druggist. They are the scientific result of the life practice of an eminent specialist in just such diseases.

Nothing better can be made and they are the standard remedy for all stomach diseases.

Try Reckall Dyspepsia Tablets for any stomach disease. Reckall & Wells ask you to pay only if the Tablets benefit. If they should fail to cure, the druggists are bound to give your money back.
